

Privacy Policy

The Catholic Women's League (CWL) is committed to protecting the privacy of its website users. We collect some personal information about you when you fill in our contact form or through the use of cookies.

Cookies

A cookie is a small portion of data sent from our website and stored on your web browser while you are browsing our site. When you visit our site again, our website can easily retrieve the cookie data to notify us of your previous activity.

The use of cookies does not, in any way, give us access to your computer or any personal information stored on your hard drive. The cookies we use may vary from those described but generally, we use required cookies as strictly necessary to enable our website to operate.

We also use functional cookies to help us improve our site by helping us to understand how our site is being used and how it performs. These cookies include analytics, which provide insights such as how many users we have, where the users are from, and which pages are visited.

You can access settings in your web browser to determine how cookies are used. If you choose to adjust your browser to not accept cookies, you may experience some loss in the functionality of our site.

Contact Form

The CWL will collect personal information from you only if you voluntarily submit this information on our contact form. We use this information to contact you and respond to your message. We will not disclose your information to third parties unless we have your consent, or if we are required to by law. The CWL takes all reasonable precautions to keep your information secure.

We encourage you to check this page regularly to stay informed about how we are collecting, using, and protecting your personal information. If you have any questions, feel free to contact us at cwlNat.president@gmail.com
